SUMMIT GROUP REFLECTION QUESTIONS

Matt. 7:24-29 "Standing Strong in the Storms of Life"

1) Based on the context in which Jesus is speaking, what does the term "rock" refer to, on which the wise are to build?

2) What in this parable do the houses built by the wise and foolish men represent?

3) What storms have you faced in your life so far, and how has your "house" fared? In what condition would you say it is now?

4) What stature does Jesus give to his own words/teachings? What stature do you give to them in your everyday life? Do you need to reconsider whose wisdom you are putting first in your life?
